Teaching Notes: English Country Dance

Country dances are a type of dance that were danced both by country folk and in courts beginning in the late Renaissance and continuing into the 18th century. They have a number of steps in common, but each dance quite often has steps unique to that dance. Country dances in general are an evolution of the bransles, and have some steps in common with these dances. Country dances originated in England, and later spread to Germany and France.

Introduction

Teaching Notes

Line, Square, and Round Dances

None of these dances are particularly complicated, and most of them can all be taught to beginners.

In particular, the 4, 6, and 8 person circle dances, such as Heart’s Ease, Rufty Tufty, and Jenny Plucks Pears are the simplest to teach. The line dances and some of the more complex 4 person dances (such as Argeers) are better suited to people who have been dancing for a while.

Don’t underestimate the amount of time it takes to teach one of these dances to absolute beginners. I can normally teach one of these in 15 minutes or less to a reasonably experienced SCA class, but as a benchmark it took me approximately 1 hour to teach a bunch of complete newcomers how to do Jenny Plucks Pears.

Repetoire

I have included only a short repertoire of English Country Dances in this book. The dances include a sampler of each type of dance, including circle and line dances, in the order in which they should be taught. It should be relatively straightforward to teach more of Playford’s dances starting with this sampling.

Playford and The English Dancing Master

Primary Sources

There is really only one primary source for Renaissance country dances and that is The English Dancing Master (renamed The Dancing Master after the second edition), by John Playford. Over 500 country dances are listed in total in the 18 editions that were printed, most of which contain music.
Other Sources  Del's Dance Book contains reconstructions of several more English Country Dances that are not contained in this book. It is relatively simple, however, to reconstruct these dances from the original source – it is reasonably easily available both in hard copy and on the internet, and it is in English.

Sides

Side Left

This step is done with partners facing each other. There are several ways to do this step. The one described below is from Raoul-Augur Feuillet’s Recuil de contradanses, printed in 1706, and is the earliest description of siding that has been found.

SLf towards your partner, bringing your right shoulders into line, then SRb into place, then SRf, bringing your left shoulders into line, then SLb into place again.

Side Right

As above, except starting to the right instead of the left.
Arms

Arm Left
This step is done with partners facing each other. Each takes partner’s right arm at the elbow and walk around partner with a DL, DR to walk a full turn back to place.

Arm Right
As above, but join left arms and walk a DR, DL back to place.

Set and Turn

TL -- Turn Left
Make a full turn (360°) over the left shoulder with one DL.

TR -- Turn Right
Make a full turn (360°) over the right shoulder with one DR.

STL -- Set and turn Left
Do a side single left, then a side single right, then do a Turn Left (SL, SR, TL).

STR -- Set and turn Right
Do a side single right, then a side single left, then do a Turn Right (SR, SL, TR).

Lesson 2: The Hey

Heys

Many Playford dances include a hey, but the number of dancers, number of beats, or the actual figure may differ. However, there are features common to all heys. Basically, a hey is a figure in which dancers pass by each other in a set number of counts. Passes are done alternating sides, so if the dancer passes first to the right, the next person will be passed on the left, and, generally, all dancers end the hey in their original places.

One common hey is for four people, starting in a line as shown in the diagram. Beginning by passing right shoulders, the dancers pass each other alternating sides until back in place. When the top or bottom is reached, the dancer circles around an imaginary person and winds up facing down the line to pass the next person. Therefore, each person will pass someone 8 times (including imaginary passes at the top and bottom of the line) before returning to position. This hey is used in The Merry Merry Milke Maids and Goddesses, among many other dances. Other heys tend to be similar in style.

Hey for three

A hey for three people is also quite common. In this case, the two bottom people are both facing upwards, and the top person is facing down the set. The first two people swap, and then the first person finds himself in the second person’s place, and swaps with the third person.

This continues in the same way as a four person hey, so that everyone returns to place.

This hey is used in Grimstock, and other dances.

Other Heys

A circular hey for 8 (known as the double hey) is used in the last verse of Goddesses. Similarly, the last verse of Woddicock has a circular hey for 6, and The Old Mole has a circular hey for 6 done twice (a double double hey!). To do these heys, have the top (and bottom, in an 8 person hey) couple face each other, while the second and third man face each other, as do the second and third lady. Simply continue the hey progressing around the circle until you get back to place.

Chestnut contains half of a hey, in two places. This is a hey for 3 that finishes half way through, with the first man in the third man’s place, and vice-versa (the second man will have returned to place).

Picking of Sticks contains a hey that can only be described as “weird”. I think it proves that hallucinogenic drugs were available in the 17th Century.
Grimstock

Starting Position
This is a line dance for 3 couples.

Verse 1
- 1 – 4  DLf DRb  Double forwards and backwards
- 5 – 8  STL  Face your partner, and set and turn left.
- 9 – 12  DLf DRb  Double forwards and backwards
- 13 – 16  STR  Face your partner, and set and turn right.

Chorus 1
- 1 – 8  Hey  The first couple begin a hey by going between the second couple, and around the outside of the third couple, and so on back to place. Essentially this is a hey for the 3 men, and a hey for the 3 women, both done at the same time, but in mirror image.

---

Verse 2
- 1 – 4  Side L  Facing your partner, side left.
- 5 – 8  STL  Set and turn left.
- 9 – 12  Side R  Side right.
- 13 – 16  STR  Set and turn right.

Chorus 2
- 1 – 8  Hey  The second hey is the same as the first hey, except that the couples remain holding hands while doing it. The first couple goes into the middle under the second couple's arms, then over the third, and so on back to place.

---

Verse 3
- 1 – 4  Arm L  Facing your partner, arm left.
- 5 – 8  STL  Set and turn left.
- 9 – 12  Arm R  Arm right.
- 13 – 16  STR  Set and turn right.

Chorus 3
- 1 – 8  Hey  The third hey is the same as the first hey, except that the top couple swaps places before beginning it, and crosses over again at the bottom of the set so that the man and lady come back up their own side. The second and third couples do not swap.
Lesson 3: Simple Circle Dances

Gathering Peascods

A circle dance, for as many couples as will. Dancers begin the dance holding hands.

Verse 1

1 - 8       SDL SDL
9 - 12      TL
13 - 20     SDR SDR
21 - 24     TR

Two doubles to the left.
All drop hands and turn over your left shoulders.
Join hands again and go 2 doubles to the right.
All drop hands and turn over your right shoulders.

Chorus

The chorus repeats throughout the dance.

Part A

1 - 12       Men circle
13 - 24      Ladies circle

Men step forwards into the center of the circle, join hands, and slip left around the circle to finish in original position.
Ladies repeat above

Part B

1 - 4       Men DLf into the center of the circle, meeting in the middle, and clapping on the third beat.
5 - 8       Ladies repeat the above while the men DRb to original position.
9 - 12      Men DLf into the center, clapping on the third beat while the ladies DRb to position.
13 - 16     Men DR back into position, turning over the right shoulder.
17 - 20     Ladies DLf into the center of the circle, meeting in the middle, and clapping on the third beat.
21 - 24     Men repeat the above while the ladies DRb to original position.
25 - 28     Ladies DLf into the center, clapping on the third beat, while the men DRb to position.
29 - 32     Ladies DR back into position, turning over the right shoulder.

Different groups clap on either the third or fourth beat of the measure. Neither is incorrect, so do whatever is common in your area.

| 9 - 12 | TL        |
| 13 - 20| Side Right| With partner |
